LANCASTER

It is believed that the democratic committee will finish nominating a winning ticket to-day (Thursday).

Mr. N. Miller, a prominent farmer, was unconscious from the effects of heat for several hours, but has recovered.

Tickets are selling rapidly to see the kinetoscope at the court-house Friday night, the greatest wonder of the 19th century.

Sam Goodloe shot John Bottoms three times at a picnic near Davistown during a general fight. The wounds are not fatal. The parties are colored.

The following party left to-day for Niagara Falls: Misses Joe Merritt, Mamie Henry and Hattie Doty, Messrs. E. H. Smith, Howard Garrison, Lizzie Adams, Prof. B. S. Gowen and R. E. Henry.

Elders James Lane Allen, of Danville, and Mark Collis, of Lexington, are conducting a protracted meeting at Pleasant Grove church, near Bryantsville. Much interest is manifested and it will continue indefinitely.

Prof. B. F. Evans, who will teach again in this county, has taught 163 months in all, having taught 1,285 children, none of whom were ever arraigned for a public offense. He justly regards it as a highly praiseworthy, but not a very lucrative profession.

Mr. Charles Walker, of Atlanta, has been at Rice Benge's stable for a few days buying horses for the Southern market. He has bought 11 head at $35 to $100. Messrs. J. D. Swope and Geo. Carter, of Lincoln, were here on Tuesday on the same business. They bought several at $30 to $50 per head.

That very superior shoemaker, T. J. Hatcher, has taken floor room in E. W. Harris' harness store, where I am located. This move makes a grand combination. You can fit yourself with shoes and clothing and your horse with harness at low figures. The news bureau also operates constantly and a full line of rattling loafers are on hand, from early morn till close of day.

Tuesday and Wednesday were consumed by the examining trial of S. D. and Jack Turner, for killing Marion Sebastian. Interest in the case has subsided to a great extent, as a much smaller crowd was in attendance than when the case was called last week.

Squire J. A. Baker presided and held them in bonds of $1,500 each, to appear before the circuit court in August. James Tudor, charged with shooting and making his escape, waived examination and his bond was fixed at $1,000. The bonds were all given and the parties are now at liberty. No further trouble is expected, as the friends of the deceased are disposed to be satisfied with a full prosecution of the case, and the defendants can not afford to provoke another difficulty. The Commonwealth introduced testimony indicating a conspiracy on the part of the Turners. It was proved that they were together the night before, came to town together and that Jack Turner waited near Powell's store door, while S. D. Turner went in the store where Sebastian was; that he used harsh language in connection with Sebastian's name while in the store, and went out soon after Sebastian did, the light then occurring near the door; that rough language was used by both parties; that Sebastian was pushed back, when Turner advanced and the firing began. The trial verified the saying, that no two men can see a difficulty alike. But few undertook to state who fired first; John Tatum swore that Turner did and T. J. Hatcher swore that Sebastian did. Turner swore that he went into Powell's to get cigars and didn't know that Sebastian was in there; that after he came out Sebastian referred to him in abusive language, that he responded, when Sebastian drew his pistol and fired three times before he fired. The defense introduced witnesses to prove threats and various quarrels months ago, which showed that bad feeling had existed between the parties for a time. Exhaustive arguments were made by Capt. Wm. Herndon, R. H. Tomlinson and G. B. Schwebroad for the defense, and J. Mart Rothwell and County Attorney Johnson for the Commonwealth.

It is estimated that 124,000 babies have been born in Texas so far this year. If all the colic they have suffered could be gathered together in one pain, 10 car loads of soothing syrup would not be sufficient to relieve it. Estimating that each baby has been walked 20 miles, it appears that the combined distance walked has been 2,480,000 miles. If one parent had been compelled to do the walking for this infantile crop of 1897 it would have been necessary for him to average 29 miles a day for 339 years, eight months and 25 days and the distance would have equaled 10 times the circumference of the earth.—Galveston News.

John D. Rockefeller, now the richest man in the world, says: "The poorest man I know of is the man who has nothing but money, nothing else in the world upon which to devote his ambition and thought."

BARNES ON SANCTIFICATION.

Rev. George O. Barnes has been preaching some powerful sermons at the court-house, but his voice and that of Miss Marie will be hushed there after to-night, to the regret of all who love to attend their meetings. Tomorrow they leave for Lancaster, where they will preach and sing for 10 days. Mr. Barnes has had a good deal to say against the "sanctification," which has had such a run here and in order that his position may be fully understood, we have taken especial pains to quote him correctly in the following synopsis of his views on the subject:

Mr. Barnes, with evident reluctance to say what is sure to be misunderstood and sure to be misrepresented; and sure to offend dear friends of the past who have become entangled in the toils of this latest form of an old, old delusion; yet urged on, apparently, by a simple desire to "contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints;" and wishing to do something to stem the tide of what he thinks an unscriptural fanaticism, that always has left and always will leave behind it a blackened waste of disappointed hopes, and lives in worse shape than before; steadfastly maintains from Scripture that all are sinners all their lives long and necessarily so.

Not all sinners alike, but all tainted with sin, so that "if any one says he has no sin, he deceiveth himself"—not God; nor the devil; nor his fellowman; but only himself; and is on the direct road to asserting when he has sinned that "he has not"—making "God a liar," who always calls sin, sin; and never gives it a softer name.

This juggling with conscience is found to produce its bitter fruit either in "failing from grace;" or, worse—a "seared conscience"—"given over to believe a lie."

Mr. B. teaches that the radical error of the modern "holiness movement" lies in the brazen assertion that men and women who "come to the altar" and claim it, have a faith that draws out all the power of the Lord Jesus, which is most assuredly sufficient to keep one perfectly free from all sin.

"The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin" is not the heritage of the "holiness people," but the common property of all sinners, "all along the line."

He does not dispute, for a moment, either the ability or willingness of Jesus to deliver, perfectly, from sin; but he finds it "written again" that "according to your faith be it done unto you," is an axiomatic truth in religion; and he denies that any being on earth, save only Jesus Christ, the God-man—had the faith in God that kept Him perfectly from sin. Hence, because "He knew no sin," but was "made sin for us"—we can "be made the righteousness of God in Him;" which is the birthright of every poor sinner. But to be "righteous," in God's sight, is one thing, and righteous in man's sight, another. We are "justified" while "ungodly;" i. e. righteous in God's sight. And we are sanctified in God's sight, being yet sinners. God counts us "justified" (i. e. treats us as if we had never sinned) when we "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ; or take Christ as our 'righteousness.'"

And God counts us as "sanctified" when we take Jesus as our "sanctification." For He is of God made unto us, wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption, as we take Him, in turn, for each.

Throughout, we are sinners—saved sinners. Mr. B. teaches that the Bible is written for sinners throughout. No other characters are mentioned. If I am not a "sinner" I can't claim an advocate. He is for sinners alone. If I am not a "sinner" I can not utter the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples, in one of its principal clauses. If I am not a "sinner" I can't enjoy the "witness of the spirit, with my spirit that I am a child of God." That only comes in place when Satan has tempted me to commit sin, and then whispers in my ear that I am not a "child of God," or I wouldn't have sinned. If I am not a "sinner" I can't claim a "comforter;" for manifestly, it is a condition of sin that needs comfort. And so on through the Bible. All the old sacrificial ordinances showing a complete Christ as a remedy for sin—whether willful or accidental; ignorant or conscious—are based on the fact of ever present sin in everyone of the Lord's people. Philipians III; 12-15 is the only perfectness recognized in the Bible. Perfect in God's sight, in virtue of surrender of "spirit soul and body;" (Thess V, 23) to His service, guidance and instruction. Imperfect in man's sight, in walk and conversation, in virtue of human weakness, assaulted by world, flesh and devil; but "growing," still, "in grace," and winning steady victories, varied with fewer defeats as we "go on to know the Lord." Only when we "see Him as He is; shall we be perfectly like Him." This is "old time religion and its good enough for me," says Bro. Barnes. The unconscious hypocrisy of the "movement" (God forbid that willfulness should be attributed for a moment) is seen in the fact that no one of the "sanctified" believe in a "wholly sanctified" body; nor do they claim perfect exemption from pain and sickness; though "Jesus has all power in Heaven and on earth." None of them dare commit Jesus to that form of deliverance; though "common sense" tells us He can do as much for the body as the soul. But a "band" organized on that line would soon go to pieces. Weak faith would soon betray itself to all. The thoughts of the heart and sins of soul are easily concealed. The pains of body are not so readily hidden. Yet Paul enumerates sanctification of "body" equally with "soul and spirit" in I Thess V, 23—quoted sesquipedal nausaeum by those who claim complete exemption from sin. A society with never a single case of pain and sickness in it, would do more good with the "general public" than hollow assertions of perfect freedom from sin. We await such an organization.

Shelby City.

Mr. Hay, of Danville, is lathing and plastering Mr. J. L. Rose's new house this week.

The ladies of the Christian church spent Thursday and Saturday of last week washing, cleaning and carpeting their church, preparatory to the protracted meeting which began Monday night, Rev. Boswell, of Mississippi, being the leading minister.

Miss Alice Duck and brother, Berkeley, of Lexington, are visiting Mrs. N. W. Duck. Miss Georgia Uppington, of Lexington, is with Miss Nora Hays. Miss Clara Goode, of Lexington, is the guest of Miss Nancy Reynolds. Miss Ruth Smith, of Danville, has been visiting Miss Bessie Pulliam. Mrs. A. A. Warren, of your city, spent the first of the week with Mrs. M. N. DePauw. Miss Bettie Wells has returned from Lebanon Junction, bringing her sister, Mrs. Jack Turner, with her. Mr. John Helm and Miss Louie Moore, Mr. E. L. Grubbs and Miss Marguerite Hockensmith returned Sunday from a trip to Mammoth Cave and the Nashville Exposition.

Mrs. Mollie Denny, superintendent Wayne county, deserves commendation though she did not win the banner offered to the superintendent whose teachers paid the most railroad fare to Bowling Green, for she arrived there after a long 20-mile stage ride, a longer stop-over at the Junction with 14 ladies and one gentleman accompanying her, while the Fayette superintendent, M. A. Cassidy, leader, brought 19 teachers. Had all 16 of the Wayne county delegation enrolled as teachers, they would have carried off the banner. Among Mrs. Denny's party were Misses Neva Cook, Fannie Berry and Mary Crawford, of Monticello, former pupils of your scribe. Among the teachers who left here Monday with Miss Kate Blain were Prof. W. C. Grinstead, Misses Lizzie Guthrie, Emma and Fannie Knox, of Boyle, Misses Mayfield and McHardy, of Pulaski, Miss Weatherford, of Casey and Miss Ella Butler, Rockcastle, and your scribe.

Hubble.

John F. Wesley, of Casey, was in this community this week on business.

Ed Minor and his father have contracted to build another $15,000 warehouse in Cincinnati.

The supper here for the benefit of the Christian church will be given next Tuesday evening. Admission 25c for all you can eat of an all-round supper.

W. S. Turney bought a family mare of Taylor House for $65. Hunter House, of Hedgeville, has sold his stock of goods to Dwight Root, who has taken possession and will run a good business there.

A Springfield gentleman who is fond of playing practical jokes upon his wife, no matter who is present, gave a little party the other night, asking his wife to prepare a light supper. In due time the guests were ushered to the dining room, to find on the table simply a dozen kerosene lamps brightly burning. The joker is not so fond of "light refreshments" as he was.

"Your typewriter girl seems to be very ambitious."

"She is; she has one great and powerful ambition."

"What is it?"

"She wants to get off earlier every afternoon."—Chicago Record.

The Tennessee Centennial is a pronounced financial success. During the two months it has been open 507,793 people have passed through the gates.

HUSTONVILLE.

Allen & Lyon shipped a car load of 4c hams to Cincinnati Wednesday.

Henry Drye sold his crop of wheat to the McKinney Mills at 65c delivered.

E. B. Good has been appointed temporary marshal, pending the result of Devers' attempted suicide.

J. G. Weatherford and family, of Mildale, are here for the Summer with their friends and relatives.

George Woodson, of Kidd's Store, has lost two children within the last few weeks from whooping cough.

Quite a number of horses and mules in this section was overcome by the excessive heat of the last few days.

Rev. Martin Luther will preach at the Presbyterian church next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, morning and evening.

Doc Bishop, a son of Josiah Bishop, had two fingers severely crushed by being caught in the cogs of a reaper he was driving.

Joe Conway and wife, of Wichita, Kansas, are spending the heated term with Mrs. Conway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reid.

W. R. Williams and John Dinwiddle were overcome by the heat Monday. Quick application of the proper remedies prevented their cases from being more serious.

The Fair Association here has concluded to join efforts with Moreland and assist them in getting the matter on foot, so as to have their exhibit on the dates formerly used by Danville.

The attention of Elbert Harper was attracted to a peculiar ringing noise up a hollow on Uncle George Powell's place. Following the direction from whence it came, he found perched upon the carcass of a horse the celebrated "belled buzzard."

W. R. Williams informs us that he is writing much more fire, wind and lightning insurance since the last few storms we have had than ever before. They are beginning to "catch on" to the fact, too, that they get safe and reliable insurance at about cost in his company.

Dr. Carl Wheeler having graduated at the recent term just closed of the Louisville Medical College with high honors, has arrived at home and is ready for business. He will office with Dr. Alcorn for the present. He feels and will practice the importance in his profession of having patients—to live.

Born, to the wife of Bob Tucker on Wednesday, a 9-pound son. No happier family in the West End now than Bob's. Thanks to Dr. Barker. We learn, since writing the above, that Dr. Bertie Carpenter has five obstetrical engagements ahead and is now arranging a program by which the dates will not conflict—a point worth knowing.

About 12:30 Tuesday our quiet village was startled by two shots in quick succession and a moment later our town marshal, James Devers, was seen coming out the front door of his residence with a smoking revolver in his hand. His first remark as he walked quietly down the street was, "I have done it myself and no one else is to blame for it." Just completing this sentence, he staggered, but recovered himself and fell full length backward upon the sidewalk unconscious. Several parties rushed to him and found a bleeding wound made by a 35 calibre S. & W. double action revolver, three inches above and one inch to the right of the left nipple. One of the shots struck his badge and may be the cause of saving his life. The ball was extracted by Drs. Barker and Alcorn from just beneath the skin and below the left shoulder blade. Devers stated that he "regretted having done as poor a job as he did, as he aimed to make it short and not have to suffer." His wound although in a very dangerous locality, passing through the left lung, is not necessarily fatal. The present condition of his system, I am told, is very much against his chances of recovery. He is young, strong and without any surplus flesh now weighs 220 lbs. Family troubles, he claims, were the cause of his rash act.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

At a business meeting held at the home of John Blain Monday, the following officers of the C. E. Society were chosen for the next six months: President, Miss Lena Yowell; Vice President, Jerry Adams; Secretary, Miss Victoria Bishop; Treasurer, A. B. C. Dinwiddle; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Bettie Powell. The society will have a picnic July 14th; further notice will be given. A very happy time was spent—refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed.—The wind no longer blows through the whiskers of Dr. Brown. He has cut them off. This is the first time he has shaved in 40 years—when he was a boy.

Rev. Dr. Martin Luther, of Chicago, Ill., who has won a wide reputation as a speaker in behalf of the cause of Cuba, will, under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, of Hustonville, deliver his celebrated lecture, "Cuba, Her Struggles and Triumphs," at the Presbyterian church, July 13th. QUEEN & CRESCENT.

During the Tennessee Centennial and International Exposition at Nashville, Tenn., a low rate special tariff has been established for the sale of tickets from Cincinnati and other terminal points on the Queen & Crescent Route.

Tickets are on sale daily until further notice at Chattanooga $4.55 one way or $4.90 round trip from Junction City, the round trip tickets being good seven days in return; other tickets, with longer return limit, at $7.30 and at $9.95 for the round trip.

These rates enable the public to visit Nashville and other Southern points at rates never before offered. Vested trains of the finest class are at the disposal of the passenger, affording a most pleasant trip, and enabling one to visit the very interesting scenery and important battle-grounds in and about Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga National Military Park. Tickets to Nashville to visit the Centennial can be purchased at Chattanooga for $3.40 round trip. Ask your ticket agent for ticket via the Q. & C. Route South or write to

THE CASH SYSTEM,

Beginning July 1, 1897, believing that it will be more satisfactory to both buyer and seller. No bad debts will accumulate, consequently we can sell goods cheaper. It will take much less capital, our expenses will be less and there is every reason why the cash system will prove satisfactory. We only ask you to try it awhile and if you find it is not to your advantage, we will not kick on your buying from merchants who sell on credit. We are satisfied we can sell you goods from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than the credit men and this should certainly be an inducement to you. Very truly,

WITHOUT going into the merits or demerits of the question, the statement by the Louisville Times that the silver party is in the minority in Kentucky, is purely gratuitous and made under the misleading effects of personal environment. Louisville may be joined to her idol of the single gold standard, but the rank and file of the country are more pronouncedly for free silver than last year, many for no other reason than that they think any change from existing conditions must result in improvement. The prosperity that the Times promised would follow the defeat of Bryan, having signally failed so far to materialize, the people are more than ever determined on a change in the financial system, and while the election of an appellate clerk will not accomplish that result, they intend to seize the opportunity to express themselves emphatically on the question. If the Times thinks that Shackelford will be defeated, even with the gold democrats and republicans fusing, and has any spare filthy lucre to back its judgment with, we are authorized to cover any amount that it may name. It is hardly necessary to add, put up or shut up. The Times will do neither, because it hasn't money to burn by putting it against the democratic nominee, and all hedges can not make it shut up. It is not built that way. Like the contentious wife, it always has the last word, whether it amounts to anything or not, and in this case it will not, unless it says that word for Mr. Shackelford. Do ye mind, Brer Logan? If so come in out of the wet and change your damp and dirty clothing.

It is said that when the petition reciting the wrongs of Faulkner Jordan, who was given five years for the killing of Morgan Young in Mercer, was read by Gov. Worthington, he wept like a child and could hardly grant the pardon too quickly. Let's see how near the surface the old man's lachrymatory is. These are the circumstances of the killing, as we have them from one who was present at the trial and if you have tears you can prepare to shed them now. Jordan, after several cowardly attempts to kill Young, at last shot him when he was not expecting it and he wandered off and bled to death. This was 10 years ago. Jordan skipped the country and going West, married a lady in Illinois. They then went, we believe, to Montana and the report is that he treated her badly. Finally she started back to her home and was taken so ill in a railway station that she died shortly afterwards. Just before her death she told who she was and her husband's name, adding that he was wanted in Kentucky for murder. On this assertion, the officers arrested Jordan, and after communicating with the authorities in this State, he was brought back. At his trial at Harrodsburg, a case of murder, pure and simple, was made out against him, but the jury, in view of the long time since it was committed, let him off with five years. Does such a state of case call for tears and pardon? And yet Jordan's case is as meritorious as any of the scores that the senile individual passed favorably upon. No wonder the State is put to the expense of soldiers at nearly every trial of importance. Come home, Gov. Bradley, and give law abiding people a chance.

P. S.—The governor has returned and Worthington has retired to the shades of Greenup, from which let us hope he will never emerge.

THE basis of representation in the boltocratic convention at Louisville next week will be one for every 200 votes cast for Cleveland in 1892, instead of making the entire vote for the Palmer and Buckner ticket in 1896 the basis. In the one case there would be 877 and in the other not very many more. The ticket only polled a little over 5,000 votes in Kentucky, with Buckner's prestige and popularity. The nominee of next week's convention would poll the half of that number.

IN a letter to the Iowa convention, Mr. Cleveland refers to the so-called National democrats as the bright lights of true democracy. There are those, however, who contend that the ex-president doesn't know what democracy is and is so far from the touch of common people that he has no idea of their condition or their needs.

THE way that Lt. Gov. Worthington is turning convicts out of the penitentiary to prey again on society is worthy of the severest censure and gravest alarm. In 18 days he pardoned 17 men, five life prisoners serving for murder and 12 serving terms of from five to 21 years for manslaughter. He also in these 18 days pardoned 17 others for house-breaking, selling liquor to minors, malicious cutting and a half dozen other kinds of offenses, besides restoring 140 convicts to citizenship, that is giving them another chance to vote the republican ticket. Was there ever such a reckless disregard for the people's rights? These men had, after great expense, and after they had used every method of the law's delay, to stave off their trials, been convicted of crimes deserving in many cases greater punishment than they were adjudged to receive. Without reason and no other excuse than a mistaken idea that he is a humanitarian, who must do something to maintain his reputation, the man whom the people didn't elect to exercise the pardoning power, sets aside verdicts at will and brings the law into further contempt. No wonder that crime is growing and increasing and no wonder that the people seeing that the safest plan is to deal out justice themselves, are becoming more determined to put law breakers where they will cease from troubling and where no old soft-headed individual who imagines he is soft-hearted can defy law and justice. The people are becoming aroused over the continued abuse of the pardoning power and are censuring Gov. Bradley for permitting such a man to assert a prerogative of which he has no apparent appreciation or regard for its sanctity.

COL. JOHN SMITH, of Atlanta, has conceived and is trying to carry out a scheme to build a home or resort for all the Smiths in the country. He is wealthy himself and will donate 10 acres on Peachtree road near Atlanta, and the vast home is to be erected on 81 subscriptions by every Smith that will do so. Should all the Smiths subscribe, the colonel will have enough money to cover the State of Georgia with a building, but while there may be more Smiths fools on the same principle that white sheep eat more than black sheep, because there are more of them, there are hardly fools sufficient among the name to put up enough for this Utopian scheme.

THE Negro, George Dinning, who exercised the God-given and law provided right to defend his humble castle from cowardly midnight raiders by shooting one of them dead, after he had been shot himself, was given seven years at Franklin, after a trial held in a court-house fortified with bayonets, to protect him from lynching. The verdict is a parody on justice and ought to be set aside without delay. Had a white man killed a white capper under such circumstances he would not only have been acquitted, but given a chrono.

THE Senate passed the tariff abolition Wednesday 38 to 28, one so-called democrat, McEnery, of Louisiana, voting with the republicans. Two silver republicans voted for it, Jones and Mantle, and one silver republican, Cannon, of Utah, against it. The bill now goes to conference and as it bears little resemblance to the one passed by the House, it may be two or three weeks before a final vote is taken.

THE Lexington Herald publishes an open letter to Gov. Worthington petitioning the pardon of George Dinning, who was given seven years for defending his own home at the expense of a white capper's life, and giving many good reasons therefor. A pardon under the circumstances would be the proper thing and the acting governor would do no violence to law and justice by issuing it.

H. A. SOMMERS, of the Elizabethtown News, is spoken of for State treasurer and if the party wants to reward faithful service, it ought to elect him. His duties in the last campaign were unpleasant and onerous but he performed them to the best of his ability and often under discouraging circumstances.

GOV. BRADLEY has undergone a complete metamorphosis by the removal of the livery livery adornment from his physiognomy and is now able to travel in cog. He says the change was made a day or two ago and was not the reason that the newspaper correspondent failed to locate him, however.

SENATOR HARRIS, of Tennessee, after a 50-year pull at office of various kinds, is about to die, but he will go hence with the proud satisfaction that he never quit till he was forced to. There was in his vocabulary no such word as resign.

PEOPLE are dying by the score in Cincinnati from heat. But come to think of it, a man ought to die who would stay in that city. Death is far preferable to a decent man.

President McKinley has sent to Congress a message recommending the creation of a commission to report plan of currency reform and asks that he be authorized to name nine commissioners.

Three cold-blooded murders in Louisville in 36 hours! Is the record. Robbery and murder are twin brothers.—Carlisle Mercury.

As a sheep before her shearers, Senator Deboe opened not his mouth in Boss Hanna's presence when the vote was taken on the whisky tax reduction amendment to the Robber tariff bill, says the Louisville Times. Instead of filling a vacancy in the Senate the junior member from Kentucky serves only to make that void the more keenly felt.

VICINITY NEWS.

W. P. Knight, of Jessamine, has sold to Simon Wehl, two cars of 1,300-lb. cattle at 5c. Moses Kahn shipped 25 car loads of fine export cattle over the L. & N. from Paris to New York. The cattle averaged 1,450 and were an exceedingly fine lot. They cost 44c.—Paris News.

Only about 20 farmers were at Lexington to attend the conference of wheat growers, and another meeting was called for next Monday. The patient grangers rarely ever do anything to improve their condition by beating the trusts.

Covington, Arnold & Bro., have bought 10,000 pounds of wool at 15c. They have bought 15,000 bushels of wheat to be delivered about the 10th instant at 60c. The wheat crop is enormous, and the price on the decline.—Richmond Register.

Reports from the leading tobacco raising centres of Kentucky show that in none of them does the average equal that of last year. In some counties the percentage is as low as one-third, or even lower. The seasons were late. Reports as to the condition of the crops are varying. In some counties the outlook is good, in others bad; in others medium. Only a small part of the old crop is left in the hands of the farmers.

Reports from the Minnesota cyclone district show that 14 or more people have been killed.

TO THE PUBLIC!

Of Lincoln and Garrard.

Owing to the wet weather last year most all of the wheat in the country was damaged, and to do our customers justice we had to grind it for them in order to hold our custom, and also for others who were customers of other mills which would not accommodate their old customers, and as they have good wheat this year we think they ought to patronize us as others would not accommodate them last year. Our flour this year will give the best of satisfaction and we will guarantee it to all, as we have new cloths in our mills. Thanks for past favors. We are Very Respectfully Yours, 35-td FRED & LANDY.

MR. ANDREW BUCHANAN, of Crab Orchard, is with friends here.

MISS MYRTLE HUGHES has been quite sick for the last two weeks.

MRS. R. B. MAHONY joined her husband at Crab Orchard yesterday.

MRS. W. J. YAGER, of Louisville, and son are with Mrs. W. M. Bright.

MR. J. C. ELMOORE, of Jellico, spent several days with his old friends here.

MR. B. F. RITCHIE, of Louisville, has been on a visit to the Misses Menefee.

MR. W. G. MCKINNEY, of Montgomery, Ala., is here with his legion of friends.

MISS RUTH ELLISON went to Somerset yesterday to spend a month with relatives.

MISS LAURA JARROE returned to her home at Lebanon Wednesday to remain until fall.

MRS. J. C. KING went to Somerset Tuesday to see her sister, Mrs. J. S. Higgins, who is ill.

MISS SALLIE DUDDERAR, of Stanford, is the guest of Miss Ruth Workman.—Corbin News.

MISS MARY HUDSON, who has been visiting the Misses Beazley, returned to her home at Danville Wednesday.

REV. G. H. TURNER and bride arrived yesterday. They will have rooms with Mrs. Logan Caldwell.—Danville Advocate.

MRS. W. B. DILLION, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Bettie Broadbent, returned to her home at Livingston Wednesday.

MRS. B. H. DANKS was unable to attend her sister, Mrs. J. M. Bruce's, declamatory contest to-night at Elizabethtown, owing to illness.

CAPT. LEN PARSONS, who mangled his left hand badly while coupling cars at Pittsburg some weeks ago, spent a few days with his mother at Rowland.

MISS ESSIE BURCH will be Stanford's representative at the Elizabethtown contest to-night, and all her friends hope she will come home with the prize.

MISS STELLA STEPHENSON, P. M., and Miss Birdie Kilian, of Maywood, and Mrs. Nannie Hobson, of Louisville, have been visiting Mrs. Dave Barnett at Lebanon Junction.

MR. R. S. MARTIN, of Brodhead, sends us word that there will be no scarcity of water or anything else of a non-intoxicating nature, at the fair at that place, even if the former was not very plentiful at the picnic Saturday.

MISS JENNIE WEST left last week for Chicago, where she will take a course of instruction in the Chicago Normal University. In September she will return to Georgia, where she will take charge of a large school.—Harrodsburg Sayings.

MR. P. FINLEY HAYS, of Wylie, Texas, arrived Wednesday to visit his brother, Mr. J. C. Hays. It has been 21 years since Mr. Hays left here, and he finds many changes, but he himself has changed but little. He carries his 72 years very gracefully.

WE are in receipt of a budget of Salt Lake, Utah, papers, dated July 4, sent by Mr. A. W. Carpenter, who had gotten that far on his way to San Francisco. The Christian Endeavorers were magnificently entertained in the city of the late Brigham Young.

IN a letter to the Lebanon Falcon from Denver, Capt. Frank Harris writes that Josh Jones, from Stanford, concluded the Pullman was a shade too rich for his blood, and he has been sounding his car, as the boys say, on the seat cushions in the smoker. Josh is pretty tough and rugged, but if he sticks to the smoker until he gets back to Stanford, he'll not forget that he has been to "Californy."

THE Stanford colored nine got defeated in both of their games with the Danville base ball club. The score in one game was 12 to 4 and the other 5 to 4.

THERE is a fair crop of peaches in the Kingsville region and many good ones have been brought to this market. The retail price is 10c a dozen or 40c a crate of 75 or 80.

THE first roasting ears of the season were on the market yesterday. They were brought in by Miss Mattie Tribble, who tells us that she has been enjoying them since July 1.

THE Weir Brothers, of Grand Rapids, Mich., artistic sign painters, have changed the looks of Walton's Opera House by decorating it with an injunction to "Chew Kiss-Me Gum."

THE ladies of the Hubble Christian church will serve supper at Bright's school-house Tuesday evening, July 13, for the benefit of the church. Come out and get a good supper for 25c.

T. M. WHITE writes us from Corbin that his wife was not his partner, as stated. He says his liabilities are only $500, with over $700 assets. "Too much McKinley prosperity caused the failure," he adds.

NOTICE.—W. J. Romans & Co., Lat. caster, are closing out their large stock of buggies, surreys, phaetons and road wagons. You can save from $5 to $25 by buying anything you want in the vehicle line from them.

HAGAN.—James Hagan, of Richmond, who was on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Lofollette, at Rowland, died there Wednesday of consumption, aged 26. His body was shipped to Richmond yesterday morning for burial.

PATENT.—E. E. Protheroe, general manager of the Brodhead Roller Mill Co., has been granted letters patent on the Roller Mill Feed Belt, which he recently invented and which promises to prove a good thing both practically and financially.

THE weather continues very hot, the mercury going up in the 90s and staying there most all day and night. A nice shower last afternoon cooled the heated atmosphere a little. A good rain fell Tuesday and since then you can see the corn grow.

THE Central Kentucky Medical Association will hold its next session, Dr. Steele Bailey, secretary, informs us, at Harrodsburg on the 15th. Dr. W. D. Powell will open the discussion on "Abortion" and numerous other subjects will be before the meeting.

LOCKED UP.—Mrs. Rice, who preached a sermon on the streets here some two weeks ago, and who it will be remembered was particularly severe on President McKinley, Mark Hanna, trusts, combines, &c., was with her husband locked up at Lexington Monday. The charge against her was disorderly conduct in preaching on the street after being warned not to do so, and that against her husband was vagrancy. The trouble grew out of a collision with the salvation army people, who did not like their methods.

FREE.—Chance at an $85 music box, with every purchase of 25c worth of jewelry from our elegant line, or $1 worth of other goods. Tanner Bros., McKinney.

WILL MOVE.—Mrs. Kate Dudderar will move her millinery stock from the store-room in the Commercial building to her residence on Lancaster Street in a few days.

GOODE.—Mrs. Ellen, wife of Dan C. Goode, died at Rowland Tuesday and was buried at her old home in Washington county. She died of consumption and was 65 years old.

THE Lincoln County Medical Society will meet at McKinney Tuesday next. Dr. I. S. Wesley, of Middleburg, will read the opening paper. An interesting program has been arranged, the secretary, Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, tells us.

TURNPIKES.—The Louisville Post of Tuesday contained a picture of Hon. R. C. Warren, and a notice that he would address the people of Lincoln county next Monday on "Free Turnpikes and the Present Situation." He will begin at 1 o'clock and those who want to become thoroughly informed on the question should be on hand.

BAD WRECK.—Owing to a slide in Boone's tunnel, the South-bound passenger train on the K. C. Monday night was ordered to be run via the Richmond Branch and Rowland to Livingston. It started down about midnight and a short distance this side of Maj. Harris' flat was dethroned from engine to sleeper. A very heavy rain had fallen and washed the track out. The engine and tender were turned over and Engineer John Clark caught in such a position that the change of a foot either way would have resulted in his being mashed to pulp. He was rescued after much difficulty badly scalded. Fireman Frank Hutton was buried in three feet of coal and water, but managed to breathe until extricated. It is thought that he will die. Strange to say none of the passengers was hurt. The engine, No. 435, is a complete wreck and is the same which killed the husband of the woman, whom Clark married a few years ago.

THE LAW ON TURNPIKE ELECTIONS.

A good deal is being said about the invalidity of the turnpike election in this county and in order that our readers may see the excellent grounds for deeming it so, we append a decision of the court of appeals. In the case of an election held on an order made three days after the filing of the petition. In this county, the petition was filed Aug. 6th and the election ordered at the regular term four days afterwards. It is obvious, therefore, that unless the court reverses itself, it is bound to hold our election invalid, but the matter could not be gotten before that court for adjudication earlier than next year and then it may take its own time to do so. The people can be their own court of appeals in the matter by voting again on the proposition to free the pikes and if it carries, as it will beyond all peradventure, then all doubts of validity will be removed, no question can be raised against the bonds to be sold and no suit to enjoin the fiscal court from acting under the election can be sustained. The lawyers, with whom we have talked, are practically agreed that the election will be held invalid. Col. W. G. Welch, who believes the court erred in the decision given below, refusing to take a fee to fight the petition for another election, believing that the election should be held and all doubts removed.

On the 5th of March, 1896, the court of appeals in the case of the trustees of Fulton District, appellants, and T. N. Smith & Co., appellees, held as follows: This was an injunction against trustees to prevent the collection of a tax for graded school at Fulton. Ten taxpayers etc., filed a petition for a graded school district on May 6, 1894, with the county clerk. On May 9, 1894, it being a regular term of the Fulton county court, the judge made an order directing the sheriff to hold an election to vote for a tax, which was duly advertised and held, a majority voting for the tax, but the injunction is sustained because the word "RECEIVES," in section 100 of the school law is adjudged to have a "TECHNICALLY LEGAL MEANING," which is, that a county judge can not receive a petition except by making an order on his order book saying that a petition has been "RECEIVED" and further than that he can not make this order "RECEIVING" such a petition, except on a day which is the REGULAR TERM of the county court; and after this order, "RECEIVING" said petition, has been duly entered, the judge must wait until the next regular term of his court before he can legally make an order directing the sheriff to hold an election.

The verbrage of the law with reference to turnpike elections is the same as his school law, so that it will be seen that the court of appeals is bound to decide the election here invalid or reverse itself. The whole matter can be remedied without loss of time by having another election on the question in November. There should be no politics in remedying such a state of affairs and patriotic men will do what is best in the premises.

ARCH JONES and "Babe" Hansford, both colored, engaged in a fistfight in Macksville Tuesday and the latter renewed it when they met on Main Street afterwards, but were separated before much damage was done to either. At their trial Wednesday Hansford was fined $5.

NIGHT FUNERAL.—Eld. J. T. Sharrard tells us that he preached the funeral of James Hogan, who died at his mother's at Rowland, Wednesday night. It was his first night funeral and taking into consideration the hot weather, Mr. Sharrard thinks it is a first-rate time to preach them.

WITHOUT BAIL.—At the examining trial of Dan Curry for killing John W. Corley at Corbin, a severe case of premeditated and willful murder was made out and Curry was sent to jail without bail. It appears that there were absolutely no grounds for his insane jealousy of Corley or of any one else. The plea of insanity will probably save his neck, as a streak is said to run in his family. The defense, which was conducted by John W. Yerkes, Esq., presented no testimony, but he made a strong speech for the discharge of his client. Circuit court will not convene till the 3d Monday in August. A story illustrating the foolish jealousy of his wife's reputation is told of Curry. A friend in town in playing with Curry's little boy, asked him who was his father. The child made no response and the man playfully said: "Poor little fellow; he hasn't got any father." On hearing of it, Curry armed himself and would have killed the man for this reflection on his wife had he not quickly explained that he was joking.

MATRIMONIAL.

A newly wedded couple will accompany Lieut. Peary to the Arctic regions.

Thomas Hawthorn, of Anderson, Ind., drank carbolic acid when he saw his sweetheart driving with another fellow.

Frank Thompson, aged 67, and four times a widower, was married at Alexandria, Va., to Miss Lottie Williams, just 16.

John S. Smith, aged 21, and Miss Izora Wade, 18, both of the McKinney section, were married at New Salem church Wednesday.

The knowing ones say that a Stanford man will wed a Lebanon beauty, who frequently visits here, before many moons wax and wane.

Mrs. Stuart Ford, daughter of Sam Small, says in her petition for divorce at Richmond, Va., that she married Ford under the impression that he was wealthy, but found him to be a loafer and a gambler. She ought to be made to stick to her bargain though.

RELIGIOUS.

Union services will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Lee Riker, of Harrodsburg, was successfully operated on for appendicitis. Including the 1,355,140 Negro Baptists there are 2,885,131 Baptists in the South; the increase last year was 174,901.

The total number of Methodists throughout the world is reported at 7,184,014. The entire ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church South is 1,462,423.

About 20,000 Christian Endeavorers have gone to San Francisco at an average expense of $100 each. Why was not this great sum given to the poor? It would have been vastly better.

There will be communion services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Preparatory services Friday night and Saturday night. Preaching by Rev. A. G. Buckner, of Cynthiana.

The hour for holding services at the Christian church has been changed from 10:45 to 10:30 A. M. sharp. Sunday School at 9:15 A. M. Bro. J. T. Sharrard says he will begin at the time specified if only two others are present. Short sermons, short songs and short prayers will be the rule during the hot weather.

W. D. Rash sends this from Lexington: Please make notice in your next issue of the death of Mrs. M. A. Rash, wife of Rev. A. D. Rash. She died Sunday and was buried at Winchester Monday, July 5th. She had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for 10 years past. Her husband was the pastor of the Baptist church in your city and county for several years.

The Harrodsburg Sayings says that the sanctification meeting of Revs. L. M. Lasley and Taylor closed very abruptly and the preachers have gone to—no one seems to know where. They have no doubt shaken the dust of this town from off their feet, for the "eraze" failed to work here. So far as we are informed, they had no "jiners" and those who attended the meetings at the court house and opera house were few, and their going was in most cases the result of curiosity.

Hamburg won the Great Trial Stakes worth $20,000, at Sheephead Bay.

The miners claim that 85 per cent. of the miners of the Pittsburgh district are now striking. United States marshals are protecting mines of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Company and also the railroad of that name, as violence is feared. In some instances strikers forced the men to quit by violence.

Superior Disc Drill.

Shelby City, Ky., June, 1897.

HIGGINS & MCKINNEY—Gentlemen—I used one of your superior Disc Grain Drills last season and can say that I much prefer it to any Drill I ever used, either for stubble or stalk ground. Yours truly,

R. G. DENNY.

Stanford, Ky., May 1, '97.

MESSRS. HIGGINS & MCKINNEY—Gentlemen—I used one of your Superior Disc Grain Drills last year in stalk land with a heavy coat of crab grass and now say that I could not have put in my wheat without the Superior Disc. The drag or plow drill would not have done the work. All my neighbors who used the Superior Disc Drill have the best prospects for a good crop of wheat. I can tell now fields that were sown with the Superior Disc and those that were sowed with other drills and would like for you to drive out and see what a difference in the wheat fields now in favor of the Superior Disc, and believe everybody who has used them will agree with me and I cheerfully recommend the Superior Disc Drill to everybody wanting a good drill.
